60 MINUTES (continued)

- 05/10/98     "Iran versus Iran"- in Iran, a reform movement led by a young and increasingly educated population is beginning to clash with hard-line conservatives. Women's rights are advancing in this Islamic Fundamentalist country but a father still can murder his daughter with impunity. (C: Christiane Amanpour - P: Andrew Tkach)
"Magic"- an interview with basketball legend Earvin 'Magic' Johnson (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Rome Hartman)
"The Winter Hill Gang"- three years ago James "Whitey" Bulger and Stephen Flemmi, the two leaders of the Winter Hill Mob, the Irish mob in Boston, were indicted for crimes committed over three decades. Flemmi disclosed that he and his partner, FBI informants for nearly 30 years, had been given free rein by the agency to commit crimes including murder (C: Ed Bradley - P: Jonathan Wells)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Medical News"- medical breakthroughs
- 05/17/98     "60 MINUTES At 30"- the correspondents and producers of the most popular news program tell what happened behind-the-scenes while reporting some of 60 MINUTES' most newsworthy reports. Also includes comments by Andy who talks about his favorite pieces. (7:00-9:00p) (Senior Producer: Maurice Murad)
- 05/24/98     "Smoke Screen"- awareness of the possible health hazards has led to a ban on smoking in most public places. Problems arise when movies show teenage favorites including John Travolta, Wynona Ryder and Uma Thurman in rolls that appear to glamorize smoking (C: Lesley Stahl -P: Rome Hartman) (OAD: 11/24/96)
"A Very Tough Neighborhood"- a visit to Hebron, a Palestinian city on the occupied West Bank where Arabs outnumber Jews 200 to one. Peaceful coexistence in Hebron seems virtually impossible because both Jews and Arabs claim that they have a legitimate right to land in the city and each wants the other to leave (C: Ed Bradley - P: Harry A. Radcliffe II) (OAD: 12/29/96)
"Quick Cash"- a large number of pawnshops in Ft. Lauderdale accept goods which are obviously stolen, including jewelry and computers. The city's Police Department went undercover with videocameras to expose the illegal transactions but state attorneys say they can't prosecute because the police didn't specify that the items were stolen. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Robert Anderson) (OAD: 12/21/97)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Farmer Andy" - Andy talks about gardening (OAD: 04/20/97)
- 05/31/98     "Crazy like A Fox?"- prosecutors who once put him behind bars for four years say Vincent "Chin" Gigante has eluded them for the past 30 years by faking mental illness and was indeed the head of a crime family. But his family disagrees claiming his dementia is genuine. Includes a videotape of Gigante in a New York hospital last year as well as footage of psychiatrists who assess his mental condition (C: Ed Bradley - P: Michael Radutzky)
"David Tang"- profile of David Tang, a Chinese entrepreneur whose goal is to establish the first Chinese brand in America. Tang has already opened a department store called Shanghai Tang in New York City. (C: Morley Safer - P: Clem Taylor)
"Cracking Down"- a report on the legal battle in Charleston, South Carolina over a plan under which pregnant women who tested positive for drugs were arrested if they failed to enroll in drug-treatment programs (C: Steve Kroft - P: L. Franklin Devine) (OAD: 11/20/94)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Spring Cleaning"- things sent to Andy

48 HOURS

- 05/07/98      "Revenge"- focuses on the lengths to which people will go when they decide to strike back after they have been wronged. Includes reports on: two Florida ministers involved in an adulterous triangle which culminated in one of the ministers hiring a hit man to kill his rival; a playwright whose dispute with his producer over money drove him to seek revenge by giving damaging information to the man's ex-wife; a woman whose husband left her with three children and no child support and who now makes a career of tracking down deadbeat dads; a comparative shopper who was arrested for bringing his computer into a store and who retaliated by filing a civil suit against the store; and a class that teaches people how to get even without breaking the law (C: Dan Rather, Susan Spencer, Erin Moriarty, Thalia Assuras - P: Katherine Davis, James A. Barry, Marc Goldbaum, Gail Zimmerman, Jay Pedinoff)
- 05/14/98      "Who's My Mommy?"- explores the legal, moral and practical issues arising from a controversial landmark case in California involving JayCee Buzzanca, a three-year-old girl whose birth was the result of a donated egg, donated sperm and a surrogate mother. The court ruled that custody should go to Luanne Buzzanca, the woman who had arranged for the child's conception and had been raising her. John Buzzanca, Luanne's ex-husband has been declared JayCee's legal father and as such must pay child support. (C: Bill Lagattuta - P: Katie Boyle, Abra Potkin, Jay Pedinoff)
- 05/21/98      "Sinatra: Living With the Legend"- a CBS News essay on the life, times, talent of Frank Sinatra -- entertainer, business tycoon and Hollywood elder statesman. Filmed over a six-month period, the broadcast contains footage of other entertainers who had a major impact on Sinatra's life including: Dean Martin, Sammy Davis, Jr., Bing Crosby and Johnny Carson as well as an interview with the singer's daughter, Nancy (C: Walter Cronkite - E.P. Don Hewitt) (OAD: 11/16/65 as a CBS NEWS SPECIAL: "Sinatra")
- 05/28/98      "Free My Family"- 48 HOURS updates viewers on the case of Sam Doggett, a teen-ager who was trying to escape state officials in Wenatchee, Wash., who she says were coercing her to admit that her parents are sexually abusive. Despite the fact that Mark and Carol Doggett were convicted of this crime, Sam insists they are not guilty. Correspondent Harold Dow examines the evidence surrounding the scandal and reports on the Doggetts whose conviction of child rape and molestation was overturned but who remain in prison, awaiting a decision on their release. (Rebroadcast with updates of "Free My Family" OAD" 04/03/97)
